Genoa, May 27.

WE are informed by the Maſter of a Felucca, which arrived here ſome Days ago from Antibes, that the King of Sardinia's Gallies put to Sea from Villafranca on the 17th Inſtant, on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates, but that they had been obliged to put back again into that Port by contrary Winds.

Rome, May 27. On Saturday laſt the Baron de St. Odyl, the new Imperial Miniſter, had his firſt publick Audience of the Pope, to which he was conducted with the uſual Ceremonies. The next Day, being Whitſunday, the Pope repaired to the Chapel of the Quirinal, and aſſiſted at High Maſs, which was performed by Cardinal Tamburini; and on Thurſday he ſet out, with a great Retinue, for Caſtel Gandolfo for the Summer.

Bologne, May 28. We learn by our laſt Letters from Parma, that Count Anguiſciola, Governor of that City, died there a few Days ago, and that the Infant Duke had appointed the Count de Riva to ſucceed him in that Poſt. The Court of Modena, which has been at Reggio during the Fair, ſets out from thence on Monday next for Rivalta, in order to paſs the Month of June at that Palace.

Aranjuez, May 29. His Excellency General Wall, Ambaſſador from this Court to the King of Great Britain, arrived here on Saturday laſt, the 27th of this Month, and was moſt graciouſly received by their Catholick Majeſties. Great Preparations are making for celebrating, on the 30th Inſtant, St. Fernando's Day, whoſe Name the King bears.

Aranjuez, June 5. A Detachment of Infantry, (conſiſting of about three thouſand Men, drawn out of different Regiments) which has been for ſome Time at Ocanna, learning ſeveral new Exerciſes, under the Direction of Brigadier Don Antonio Manſo, marched from thence on the 23d, in order to encamp on a Plain about half a League diſtant from this Place, and the three following Days was reviewed by his Majeſty, who was ſo well ſatisfied with the fine Appearance that this ſelect Body of Troops made, as well as with the Manner in which they went through all their different Exerciſes, that he was pleaſed to order the private Men triple Pay for five Days, and has ſince promoted ſeveral of the Officers. His Majeſty has reſerved for his own Determination, which of the ſeveral Exerciſes, that were performed before him, he will have made uſe of in his Army. By an extraordinary Meſſenger, who arrived here on the 23d of laſt Month, their Catholick Majeſties had the Pleaſure of hearing, that the Queen of Naples was brought to Bed of a Son on the 11th Inſtant at Night. Don Jayme Maſſenes, Lieutenant-General in this Service, ſet out the 3d Inſtant, on his Embaſſy to France.

Stockholm, June 1. 'Tis now confidently aſſerted, that the States of this Kingdom will ſeparate on Monday next. The King is preparing to ſet out for Finland, in order to viſit the Fortifications of that Province, which Tour will take up near ſix Weeks; during which the Queen and the young Royal Family are to remain at Drottningholm.

Venice, June 2. The Maſter of a Ship arrived here from Smyrna brings Advice, that ſome Days before his Departure from thence, a Fire broke out in that Part of the City inhabited by the Turks, which burnt down a great Number of Houſes; and that two Days after another Fire broke out in the Quarter inhabited by the French, which did alſo very conſiderable Damages. The Maſter of a French Ship juſt arrived here from the Coaſt of Barbary, not only brings a Confirmation of the eldeſt Son of the Bey of Tunis's having defeated his Father's Army, and forced him to take Shelter in the Caſtle of Bardo; but likewiſe adds, that the Father had been obliged to ſurrender to his Son after a Siege of ten Days; and that the Son had thereupon committed him to Priſon, with ſtrict Orders to thoſe who have the Care of him, to cauſe his Eyes to be put out, and even to ſtrangle him, in Caſe he or his Party ſhould make the leaſt Attempt to procure his Liberty.

Vienna, June 3. Her Imperial Majeſty is now in the laſt Month of her Pregnancy, and enjoys a good State of Health. Count Konigſegg Erps, Preſident of the Council of the Mines, is ſet out from hence for Stiria, in order to examine a new Mine of Silver lately diſcovered in that Country, which 'tis thought will anſwer extremely well.

Cologn, June 12. Laſt Week a Number of Families paſſed by this Place from the Counties of Budingen and Birſtein; they were going to Holland, in order to embark for New England and Nova Scotia.
